

A superior payment experience with WeChat Pay

Making education payments via WeChat Pay is easier than ever

About WeChat Pay

Flywire has partnered with Tencent Financial Technology to streamline payments from China. Through this direct connection, Chinese students and families can utilize Flywire to make their education payment via WeChat Pay/Weixin Pay in Chinese Yuan (CNY). This seamless and secure option accelerates and streamlines the payment process with embedded document validation that is compliant by Chinese FX regulators. Payers can send between 1,000CNY and 300,000CNY per transaction to their institution through Flywire.

How to make a payment using WeChat Pay

1. Simply select China as the country of origin, and enter the payment amount in the destination currency
2. Choose 'Weixin Pay' from the list of available payment options
3. Begin the payment process on the Flywire site by entering all relevant payer and student details
4. Upload required documents, including the payment invoice and institution offer letter
5. Review the payment instructions and process the payment
6. Go to the WeChat payment page from the Flywire official website, and scan the code to complete the payment.

